

Questions & Answers – Taking Full Advantage of Title IV

Q: So I should be thinking of Social-Emotional Learning activities as being under Well-Rounded, and not Safe and Healthy?

A: Could make the case that it could go under either, depends on your needs and the way that you write that investment.

Q: Due to Covid-19 closure we know many students will need additional SE and MH supports for FY21, but we may not have actual data. What could we use for data to support this...the number % of days closed?

A: We're going to have to talk about it. Jesse jumps in: both data inventories and CIPS are living documents, so you have the opportunity to evolve and update those.

Q: Does a school's SWP investment to meet the intent of Title IV have to meet one of the three or all three? Well-rounded, EUT, and Safe and healthy?

A: Just one.

Q: For Schools that are eligible for comprehensive supports, will they receive less Title IV funds?

A: These two things are not connected. LEAs decide how and where Title IV funds should be spent and are not obligated to spend IV at the school level, or can choose to spend it at all schools or at certain schools. They can choose to consider comprehensive status or not when making these decisions.

Q: Will participants be able to receive PD certificates?

A: Karen will handle offline.
