

Independent Reviewers of Harassment Determinations

A complainant may request an independent review within thirty (30) days of a final determination of a harassment investigation if they are either:

- dissatisfied with the final determination of the school officials as to whether harassment occurred, or
- believe that, although a final determination was made that harassment occurred, the school's response was inadequate to correct the problem shall make such request in writing to the headmaster or superintendent of schools.

Upon such request, the headmaster or superintendent shall initiate an independent review by a neutral person selected from a list developed jointly by the commissioner of education and the human rights commission and maintained by the Secretary of Education. Individuals shall be placed on the list based on their objectivity, knowledge of harassment issues, and relevant experience. (Note: The District may also request an independent review at any stage of the process.)
