Vermont Agency of Education Brings Back “Teacher Feature” on Social Media Accounts

For Immediate Release November 20, 2017

Contact: Haley Jones, haley.jones@vermont.gov

Barre, VT. – The Vermont Agency of Education today announced the return of the Teacher Feature on the Agency’s social media accounts.

The Teacher Feature social media campaign, originally started in 2011, is a way to spotlight Vermont teachers doing great things in their school communities. All Vermonters are encouraged to nominate educators who deserve recognition for their hard work.

Please feel free to post and share the attached Teacher Feature poster with colleagues, families, and students to encourage them to share a story about their favorite teacher.

To participate, contact Haley Jones with a paragraph describing a remarkable teacher you know and a photo. The submission and photo may be shared on the Agency’s Facebook, Twitter and Instagram accounts.

Connect with the Vermont Agency of Education on Twitter, Facebook, and YouTube.
