

As a Jew living in Vermont, it is appalling that section B will not be part of the Vermont legislation that mandates inclusion and against antisemitism in the curriculum for our students.

What is happening in Israel today is an example of hatred towards Jews. We have a responsibility to educate our young people so this hatred doesn't infest our State.

Betty Barba
Norwich Vermont.

Sent from my iPad